What is Cambridge Looking For?

- Academic ability and potential
- Satisfy any subject requirements
- Genuine subject interest – motivation and enthusiasm
- Good ‘fit’ between applicant and course
- Vocational commitment (where appropriate)

What information does Cambridge use to assess applications?

Cambridge considers every application individually, taking all aspects into account:

- Academic record
- Personal statement
- Teacher's reference
- Admissions test results (where required)
- Written work (where required)
- Interview (if interviewed)

No part of an application is considered in isolation – all available information is looked at together before decisions are made.

The application process

- Choose a Course
- Choose A College (... or don't!)
- Apply to UCAS By 15 October
- Complete a Supplementary Application Questionnaire
- Take A Test (If Required)
- Attend Interview
- Decision by end of January

The application process

- The UCAS application and the SAQ can be completed online
- You'll need to record all details of your qualifications taken to date and not yet completed
- You'll need to write a personal statement
- And be prepared for an academic conversation at interview
- You can find everything you need to know at www.study.cam.ac.uk/undergraduate

Your country

- There are currently around 1,200 Luxembourg students studying in the UK
- There is a very active Society of Luxembourg Students in Britain (SLSB)
- Typical Cambridge offers for applicants taking the Diplôme de Fin d'Etudes Secondaires would be based on an overall score of at least 50 (très bien).
- You will need to demonstrate your English language skills are good enough for you to undertake an intensive and challenging academic course that is taught and examined in English.
